ISKALO DEVELOPMENT ACQUIRES 5727 MAIN STREET

Williamsville, NY – Iskalo Development Corp. today announced that it had closed on the acquisition of 5727 Main Street in Williamsville. The property contains a 7,500 square foot building that formerly housed Pitt Petri’s suburban location.

“With our strong and growing portfolio of properties along Main Street in Williamsville, Iskalo Development is uniquely positioned to be the developer of first choice for companies looking to locate in this vibrant commercial corridor,” Paul B. Iskalo, founder and CEO, Iskalo Development Corp., said. “Acquiring 5727 Main Street in Williamsville fits that strategy and also makes sense because it is a highly-visible, corner location desired by retail users.”

Iskalo Development is a full-service real estate development company headquartered in Williamsville, NY, and specializing in corporate and medical office, light industrial, retail, and mixed use projects located throughout Western New York. The company prides itself on finding well located, underutilized buildings and repositioning them as signature properties in the marketplace. For more information, visit www.iskalo.com.
